8. Information Security and Retention

Credit Fix Legal takes precautions to safeguard your Personal Information from loss, theft, and misuse, as well as unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, and destruction. These precautions include technical, physical, and managerial procedures.

Because email and instant messaging are not recognized as secure communications, we request that you not send private information to us by email or instant messaging services.

We regularly review our compliance with our Privacy Policy and enforce safeguards within the company.

We are committed to working with appropriate regulatory authorities to resolve any complaints regarding the transfer of Personal Information that we cannot resolve with our customers directly.

For your own protection, you should exercise care with the information you share over the Internet. You should always use a secure browser and exercise good judgment in using passwords, such as using a combination of upper and lower case letters, numbers, special characters, and you should avoid using the same or similar passwords across multiple sites.

Clients may access their Personal Information by logging into their account. We make good-faith efforts to give you ways to update or to delete your Personal Information quickly, unless we need to keep that information for a legitimate business or legal purpose. Some changes require personal contact with an assigned Credit Fix Legal representative.

Credit Fix Legal retains Personal Information and Non-Personal Information for the time necessary and reasonable to fulfill the purposes outlined in the Privacy Policy, unless a longer retention period is required or permitted by law.

We may reject requests to change or delete information that are unreasonably repetitive, require disproportionate technical effort (for example, requiring the development of new systems or fundamental changes to existing systems), risk the privacy of others, or would be extremely impractical (such as information stored on backups).

We work to protect data from accidental or malicious destruction. Accordingly, we may not immediately delete or change residual copies and we may not delete or change information from our backup systems. Unless a disproportionate effort is required, we will provide information access and correction without charge.

This Privacy Policy only addresses the use and disclosure of information we collect from you. This policy does not apply to the practices of companies that Credit Fix Legal does not own or control or to people that Credit Fix Legal does not employ or manage. Credit Fix Legal does not control the privacy policies of third parties, and you are subject to the privacy policies of those third parties where applicable. We encourage you to ask questions before you disclose your personal information to others. For more information about each such third party, please refer to the third party's privacy policy.

If you provided your information on the website of an entity not related to Credit Fix Legal, and that entity shared your information with us, the privacy policy of that website governs the non-related entity's use of your information, which may be different from this policy.

10. Children

We do not knowingly collect Personal Information from children under 13. If we learn that we have collected the personal information of a child under 13, we will take steps to delete the Personal Information as soon as possible.

11. Consumer Surveys

Credit Fix Legal may invite you to join a survey panel through which you will be able to share your opinions about proposed new services or other issues relevant to Credit Fix Legal and its practice. Your participation in this panel is voluntary and is not required in order to engage Credit Fix Legal's legal services. Opting in also does not affect your ongoing legal services. If you are invited to join a survey panel, your input may be sought in order to assist Credit Fix Legal to better market its legal services to interested consumers and provide more efficient and effective services overall. You agree that Credit Fix Legal, including its third party providers, can use (as it chooses and at its sole discretion) any information and feedback you provide in response to survey and panel questions. You acknowledge and agree that Credit Fix Legal will be the sole owner of the services and survey questions about which you provide information and feedback and that you have no claim to any Credit Fix Legal services or the revenue or profits derived from them. You hereby assign to Credit Fix Legal all intellectual property rights embodied in the information and feedback you provide to Credit Fix Legal (about the services and in response to the survey questions) and shall execute any documents necessary to effect the foregoing. All information and feedback you provide to Credit Fix Legal as part of the panel is the confidential business proprietary information of Credit Fix Legal and you shall not disclose such information and feedback to anyone other than the designated individuals at Credit Fix Legal responsible for the services and/or survey(s). You warrant and represent that your participation on the panel will not violate the rights of any person or entity and will not cause liability for payment to any entity or person.

If you participate, you will be awarded points based on your completing surveys and otherwise engaging in the panel. You acknowledge and agree that you understand that any points or awards provided are solely for completing surveys and otherwise participating in the panel. It is within Credit Fix Legal's sole discretion to decide what award to provide and the points that will be required for an award. The award system may be changed at Credit Fix Legal's discretion, but if a panel participant has met the minimum requirement for an award, that award will be provided to the individual before applying a new incentive structure.

Because your participation in the panel is not required for your Credit Fix Legal services, you may opt out of the panel at any time without terminating your Credit Fix Legal representation. Similarly, you may continue serving on the panel even if your Credit Fix Legal representation ends. You will need to opt out of the panel in order to no longer receive emails or informational material about the panel surveys unless participation is terminated by Credit Fix Legal.

Credit Fix Legal reserves the right to terminate your participation in the panel at any time. Some of the reasons your enrollment in the panel may be terminated include, but are not limited to, inactivity from all panel activities for a period of time or offensive conduct toward Credit Fix Legal, its employees, contractors, or agents, or toward fellow panel members. If Credit Fix Legal terminates your participation or if you voluntarily cancel your participation, you will receive the appropriate award for all points you have accrued to date if those points have accumulated to the minimum required for any award; otherwise, all points will be forfeited.

As a member of the panel, you will receive e-mails and other material from our third party provider(s) and you may be asked additional information about yourself. The personally identifying information you provide Credit Fix Legal and third party provider(s) will be treated as set forth in this Privacy Policy. Under no circumstances will Credit Fix Legal share with its third party provider(s) information about your client case unless you provide specific, written authorization to do so.

You also acknowledge and understand that information you provide as part of the panel will be kept on the platform provided by Credit Fix Legal's third party provider(s). This type of information may include answers you have given as part of the panel registration process and substantive answers you have given in surveys.
